FEDERAL GOVERNMENT

Dear Senator Gorton:

Your September 19th communication on behalf of [redacted] has been referred to the FBI and brought to my attention. [redacted] expresses her belief that the murders of Dr. Ismail al-Farugi and his wife were politically motivated. She also mentions the murder of Alex Odeh.

Referred 10/23/86

We can appreciate the concern [redacted] expressed regarding attacks against members of the Arab American community. Senseless acts of violence cannot be tolerated in our society as a means of expressing dissent or political views. The FBI has committed significant resources to investigating those matters where it has been determined that terrorist activity is involved. We are investigating the death of Alex Odeh, which was determined to be the result of such activity. It is of great importance to the FBI to bring about a successful resolution through the eventual prosecution and incarceration of the individual or individuals responsible for this crime. Such goals, however, do not lend themselves to any established schedule. Our efforts in this regard will continue in an attempt to bring the Alex Odeh case to a logical conclusion.

Since there has been no evidence of a Federal violation within the FBI's investigative authority, we are precluded from assuming primary or joint responsibility for the murder investigation of Dr. Farugi and his wife. We are, however, affording every possible assistance to the Cheltenham, Pennsylvania, Police Department, which is investigating this

SUBJECT: TERRORISM AGAINST MUSLIM AMERICANS

ISMAIL AL FARUQI

Honorable Judge Webster:

Recently, acts of terrorism and intimidation against the Arab and Muslim Americans and their institutions have been on the increase (See enclosed copy of article from The New York Times - July 20, 1986). Although the newsmedia shares the blame because of their deliberate misrepresentation of Islam and the Muslims in North America and elsewhere, the increase in violence is mostly due to the virtual impunity enjoyed by perpetrators of such terrorist acts.

One year after Alex Odeh was murdered by terrorist bombing of ADC's regional headquarters in Santa Ana, California, the terrorist murderers have not been apprehended. And two months after Professor Ismail Al Faruqi, the distinguished Islamic scholar of world renown, and his wife were stabbed to death [redacted] in their suburban Philadelphia home, the criminals are still at large, and FBI refuses to get involved. THIS INACTION MUST NOT BE TOLERATED! It is imperative that the terrorists responsible for these and other heinous acts of violence and intimidation against Muslim Americans and their institutions be apprehended and punished to the full extent of the law!

We demand condemnation of terrorism! We demand justice!

Yours Sincerely

Attacks on U.S. Arabs: The Middle Eastern Link

By COLIN CAMPBELL

A Congressional hearing dealing with violence against Arab-Americans has reflected a growing perception that such violence rises in waves originating in the conflicts of the Middle East.

Federal investigators and Arab-American groups say anti-Arab violence, threats and harassment all increase whenever Americans, in particular, are threatened by Arabs or Moslems. This was the pattern after a Trans World Airlines jetliner with 104 Americans was hijacked to Lebanon in June 1985, after the cruise ship Achille Lauro was seized by Palestinian gunmen last October and after American planes bombed Libya in April, an attack that was itself a reply to Libyan-sponsored terrorism in Europe.

Some of the deepest worries among Arab-Americans have focused on the murder of Alex Odeh, the West Coast regional director of the American-Arab Anti-Discrimination Committee. Mr. Odeh was killed by a bomb last October in Santa Ana, Calif., soon after the Achille Lauro hijacking.

Although the murder has not been solved, Oliver B. Revell, executive assistant director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, told the House Subcommittee on Criminal Justice on Wednesday that the bureau suspected that "Jewish extremist elements" were responsible for the Odeh murder as well as for similar bombings aimed at purported Nazi war criminals.

Cyclical Pattern Is Seen

Mr. Revell also said that a recently disclosed Secret Service memorandum stating that the F.B.I.'s investigation of the Odeh killing had failed and had been "closed" was inaccurate.

It is not just the Odeh killing, however, that is causing concern among Arab-Americans. They also say they are worried by the signs that anti-Arab violence rises in waves, that it seems to be fueled by widespread ethnic stereotypes and that at least some of the violence appears to have been spearheaded by militant groups such as the Jewish Defense League and the Jewish Defense Organization.

Faris Bouhafa, a spokesman for the American-Arab Anti-Discrimination Committee, was asked Thursday if anti-Arab violence had risen in the United States after terrorist attacks in Europe last spring were linked to Libya and followed by American air raids on Tripoli and Benghazi. Mr. Bouhafa replied from the group's Washington headquarters, "Yes, absolutely."

"In Dearborn, Mich., the night of the attack, three individuals went through the Arab community smashing the windows of restaurants," Mr. Bouhafa said, consulting his log. "Outside of a pub in Syracuse, N.Y., two days after the attack, an Arab student was jumped by 10 individuals and blinded in one eye."

Ten days later, he said, a Detroit radio station reported that an Egyptian medical student in Cicero, Ill., had been badly beaten. Two weeks later, an Arab-American restaurant owner in New Haven reported threatening phone calls from the Jewish Defense League.

In recent months acts of anti-Arab violence appear to have receded at a time when there has been a relative absence of successful terrorist attacks against Americans, Europeans or Israelis.

Slaying of Disabled American

After the Achille Lauro hijacking, in which Leon Klinghoffer, a retired New Yorker, was shot to death and thrown from the ship in his wheelchair, many anti-Arab incidents were reported in addition to the bombing that killed Mr. Odeh and injured seven other people.

Anti-Arab language also grew heated. The head of the Jewish Defense League, Irv Rubin, publicly approved of the killing of Mr. Odeh while denying that the league was involved in terrorism. Mordechai Levy, head of the Jewish Defense Organization, said in a telephone interview that the American-Arab Anti-Discrimination Committee, whose national chairman is former Senator James G. Abourezk of South Dakota, was a "front" for the Palestine Liberation Organization.

Mr. Levy said the Jewish Defense Organization had 3,000 members and that it encouraged them to train with firearms for self-defense. He denied that he was anti-Arab or anti-Islamic. Unlike the Jewish Defense League, he said, "We don't advocate throwing all the Arabs out of Israel." He said his colleagues had beaten people but had not murdered anyone or planted any bombs.

Threat to Arab-Americans

Last Dec. 10, two months after the Odeh killing, the Director of the F.B.I., William H. Webster, told reporters that Arab-Americans had entered "a zone of danger." Referring to extremist Jewish groups, he warned that some Arab-Americans had become targets of a conspiracy aimed at "enemies of Israel."

This year, according to Mr. Bouhafa, cases of anti-Arab violence have included the Jan. 9 shooting of a Palestinian grocer in Milwaukee by two men who took no money; the unexplained beating of the editor of an Arab newspaper in Philadelphia on Jan. 17, and threats and vandalism elsewhere.

Last summer, after the T.W.A. hijacking, anti-Arab incidents recorded by Mr. Bouhafa's group included the wounding of two Boston police officers when a bomb exploded outside the local American-Arab Anti-Discrimination Committee office; telephone death threats against a New York Arab group, Arab People to American People; a threatened takeover by the Jewish Defense League of the Islamic Center of New England in Quincy, Mass., and two firebombs thrown through the window of a Houston mosque.

SUBJECT: TERRORIST MURDER OF ISMAIL AL FARUQI

Dear Assistant Director Baker:

I find your response of June 25, 1986 disappointingly inadequate and unsatisfactory. FBI's refusal to get involved in apprehending murderers of Professor Ismail Al Faruqi and his wife is neither understandable nor acceptable.

As you well know, more than two months later, the perpetrators of this heinous crime are still at large, in spite of recovery of plenty of evidence. With no new leads in sight, the local authorities seem to be at an impasse.

I am certain that you are aware that the local authorities had ruled out burglary as a motive, and had described the crime as "pre-meditated murders". There is substantial reason to suspect involvement of extremist Jewish groups, such as Jewish Defense League, etc. (See the enclosed article from The New York Times- July 20, 1986).

FBI must get involved to bring the terrorist murderers of Ismail Al Faruqi and his wife to justice: It is an imperative of the situation. FBI must also redouble their investigation of JDL as a domestic terrorist group. Failure to do so shall be tantamount to sanctioning of Jewish terrorism, in spite of this administration's anti-terrorism slogans. Because lack of deeds speaks louder than words!

Yours Sincerely

Dear [redacted]:

102/104/106 ISMAIL AL FARUQI

I have received your July 30th communication and the copy you sent to Judge Webster has also been brought to my attention, together with your letter to him of August 4th. Also the copy of your July 30th letter to me which you sent to the Attorney General has been referred to the FBI.

The murders of Dr. Faruqi and his wife were intolerable and their murderer must be brought to justice; however, in the absence of any evidence which would support an FBI investigation, the only thing we can do is to assist the local authorities in any way possible. This we are doing.

The ability of the FBI to conduct an investigation is carefully defined by laws, statutes and presidential directives. To go outside that prescribed authority in conducting an investigation would make us in violation of the very laws we are sworn to uphold, regardless of the merits or the emotional climate which surround the particular case. I'm sure as an adherent of our Constitution and our governmental structure you would not have us do otherwise.

Terrorism is one of the most challenging crime problems in the world today, and one of the FBI's functions is to make sure terrorists do not succeed in the United States. Our goal is to detect and prevent domestic and international terrorist activity in the United States and to investigate those terrorist acts abroad which have by statute been made prosecutable in the United States. The investigation into the murders of Dr. and Mrs. Faruqi has not developed any evidence to support the theory that terrorism was involved. We will, however, continue to provide assistance and we will be alert to the development of any evidence which would support the terrorism theory. On the other hand, there is evidence that terrorism was involved in the bombing death of Alex Odeh

Dear Senator Dodd:

We write to you concerning the growing prejudice in the United States against Muslim citizens. This prejudice is nurtured by the language and images contained in some media reports and by the comments of some of the highest political leadership of this country. As representatives of both Muslim and Christian organizations, we solicit your support in opposition to those interests and practices which perpetuate this prejudice.

Because of the bigotry in this country, a climate has developed which seems to tolerate acts of violence toward Muslims. One such act was the assassination of Drs. Ismail and Lamya al-Faruqi. We are concerned that so little progress toward the arrest and prosecution of the assassin has been made by our law enforcement agencies. Several weeks ago we sent an inquiry to the Federal Bureau of Investigation about this matter. A copy of the letter is enclosed. The reply indicates the crime will not be solved unless law enforcement agencies are given a considerable amount of encouragement. We solicit also your intervention with the appropriate law enforcement agencies so that this crime will be solved and the apprehensions of Muslim citizens will be dispelled.

Thank you.

The Honorable William Bradley
United States Senate
Washington, D.C. 20510

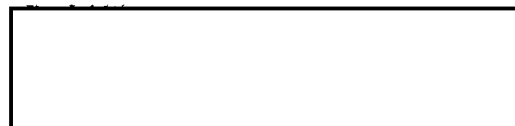

Dear Senator Bradley:

We write to you concerning the growing prejudice in the United States against Muslim citizens. This prejudice is nurtured by the language and images contained in some media reports and by the comments of some of the highest political leadership of this country. As representatives of both Muslim and Christian organizations, we solicit your support in opposition to those interests and practices which perpetuate this prejudice.

Because of the bigotry in this country, a climate has developed which seems to tolerate acts of violence toward Muslims. One such act was the assassination of Drs. Ismail and Lamya al-Faruqi. We are concerned that so little progress toward the arrest and prosecution of the assassin has been made by our law enforcement agencies. Several weeks ago we sent an inquiry to the Federal Bureau of Investigation about this matter. A copy of the letter is enclosed. The reply indicates the crime will not be solved unless law enforcement agencies are given a considerable amount of encouragement. Thank you.

Honorable Bill Bradley

FEDERAL GOVERNMENT

Dear Senator Bradley:

Your March 10th communication to Inspector [redacted] on behalf of [redacted] and [redacted] has been brought to my attention.

[redacted] and [redacted] wrote expressing concern regarding the investigation into the murders of Dr. Ismail al Farugi and his wife. That investigation was conducted by local authorities, which resulted in the arrest of an individual who has been charged with that crime. If they have any questions regarding this case, they may wish to communicate with either the Cheltenham, Pennsylvania, Police Department or the Montgomery County Detectives, Norristown, Pennsylvania, who conducted the investigation. Although there was no Federal violation which would have granted the FBI authority to actively investigate the matter, we did cooperate with the local officials and provided them every possible assistance, including the facilities of our Laboratory Division which helped in identifying the individual charged.

I hope this information will help allay any fears that [redacted] and [redacted] may have that the law enforcement community is not serious in its efforts to safeguard the welfare of all citizens.

Sincerely,

Honorable Bill Bradley

NOTE: Bufiles indicate that [redacted] [redacted] have written to the FBI and to other Senators regarding their concern about acts of violence against the Arab and Muslim communities and the failure of the law enforcement community to bring to justice the perpetrators of the murders of Dr. Ismail al Faruqi and his wife. These murders were investigated by the Cheltenham, Pennsylvania, Police Department and the Montgomery County Detectives, Norristown, Pennsylvania. There was no indication of any Federal violation within our Domestic Police Cooperation program.

Instructions

Subject Priorities for FBI Arrest or Locates:

- A - Subject wanted for crimes of violence (i.e. murder, manslaughter, forcible rape, robbery and aggravated assault) or convicted of such crimes in the past five years.
- B - Subjects wanted for crimes involving the loss or destruction of property valued in excess of $25,000 or convicted of such crimes in the past five years.
- C - All others

Claiming Non-Federal Arrests, Summonses, Recoveries or Convictions:

It is permissible to claim a local arrest, summons, recovery or conviction if the FBI significantly contributed to the accomplishment. A succinct narrative setting forth the basis for the claim must accompany this report. When claiming a local recovery, enter the word "LOCAL" to the right of the amount. Enter "LF" in the "In-Jail" block for all life sentences and "CP" for capital punishment sentences.

Reporting Convictions:

Convictions should not be reported until the sentence has been issued. There are two exceptions to this rule. The conviction information can be submitted by itself if:

- 1. The subject becomes a fugitive after conviction but prior to sentencing.
- 2. The subject dies after conviction but prior to sentencing.

An explanation is required in the Remarks section for either of the above exceptions.

Rule 20 Situations:

The field office that obtained the process (normally the office of origin) is the office that should claim the conviction, not the office where the subject enters the plea in cases involving Rule 20 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedures.

Investigative Assistance or Techniques (IA/Ts) Used:

-Since more than one IA/T could have contributed to the accomplishment, each IA/T used must be rated.

-The IA/T used must be rated each time an accomplishment is claimed. (For example - if informant information was the basis for a complaint, an arrest, a recovery and a conviction and if separate FD-515s are submitted for each of the aforementioned accomplishments, the "Informant Information" block must be rated on each FD-515 even if it was the same information that contributed to all the accomplishments.)

Race Codes:

C= Chinese; I= Indian/American; J= Japanese; N= Negro; O= All other; U= Unknown; W= White

ISMAIL FARUQI was the Director of Religious Study at TEMPLE UNIVERSITY and the former mayor of Galilee, before Galilee became the state of Israel. Because of the notoriety at the time, FBI investigative resources were requested by both investigating agencies and a Domestic Police Cooperation case was operated out of the Lansdale Resident Agency. Throughout the investigation and up to the arrest of JOSEPH YOUNG on 1/16/87, innumerable leads were conducted by Philadelphia Division, along with several other FBI Divisions. The ultimate solution of the case was an identification of fingerprints made by FBI Laboratory and further investigation of YOUNG's blood and hairs by FBI Laboratory. FBI conducted interviews in Mexico; Taiwan; San Antonio, Texas; New York City; and many other areas in the continental United States. Because of the resources applied in this matter through FBI Laboratory and investigative techniques performed by Philadelphia and other Divisions, Philadelphia Division is claiming a statistic for the murder convictions of YOUNG.
